

The Bina and Moshe Stekelis Fund for Prehistoric Archaeology in Israel

For further questions, please contact
The Bina and Moshe Stekelis Fund
Department of Prehistoric Archaeology
The Institute of Archaeology
The Hebrew University of Jerusalem
Mt. Scopus, Jerusalem 91905
Email: hovers@mail.huji.ac.il

Applicant's name:

Applicant's email address and phone number

Name of co-investigator (pre-doctoral applicants should add the name of their academic advisor)

Email and phone number of the co-investigator:

Date:

Please fill in details in the marked spaces. Please comply with indications for text length.
A digital copy should be sent to the contact person.

Description of the research

a) Project title (up to 15 words)

b) the sum requested from the Bina and Moseh Stekelis Fund (in NIS)

c) Estimated duration of the research. Please provide start and end dates

Name of applicant: _____

2. Biographic information

Please attach CV of the applicant and of the co-investigator. The advisor's CV is not needed. Also, if the applicant is a member of the faculty of the Dept. of Prehistoric archaeology, CV is not needed.

CV must include the following:

- a) Applicant's academic credentials (including name of Institute, academic degree and position)
- b) Education history and degrees
- c) Academic credentials of the co-investigator (including name of Institute, academic degree and position)
- d) Co-investigator's educational history and degrees
- e) Special skills of the applicants and the co-investigator that are needed/contribute to the research (languages, computation skills etc.
- f) Lists of publication of the applicant and of the con-investigator. Items that are most relevant to the project should be marked by an asterisk.)

Give the name, biographic details, email addresses and mention the special skills of additional researchers in the project (for example, archaeobotany, archaeozoology, art, use wear, modelling, etc.)

Name of applicant: _____

3. Budget details

The amount requested from the Bina and Moshe Stekelis Fund (in NIS) _____

Additional funding sources for this project. Please mention all available funds as well as pending applications. If no other funding is available, please state so explicitly.

An itemized budget should be attached on a separate sheet. The budgetary breakdown should include estimated cost of equipment, material, car rental, petrol, etc. All budget items should be justified clearly. Please note the Stekelis Fund will not fund salaries for applicants and overhead costs. Should any large or expensive items be purchased with the funds provided by the Stekelis Fund, these items – or their monetary equivalent in their used condition – will be returned to the Committee of the Bina and Moshe Stekelis Fund at the end of the research.

Name of applicant: _____

Previous funding from the Bina and Moshe Stekelis fund, for any research.. Please provide name of the project, year of funding and the amount of support. Please note whether the preliminary reports on these projects were submitted to the committee, as requested by the Fund

4. References. Please add a letter of recommendation. (If the applicant is not a Ph.D. holder, this letter MUST NOT be from the advisor).

5. Successful applicants will present a preliminary report to the committee no later than 31.12.2022 (estimated date) and a final report by _____.

6. The Bina and Moshe Stekelis Fund for Prehistoric research in Israel will be acknowledged in all publications resulting fully or partially from the Fund's support. A copy of each such publication, report or any other material emanating from the Fund's support should be deposited with the Stekelis archives at the Institute of Archaeology, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

If the applicant is a student please add the signature and name of the advisor

Signature

Signature

Name

Name

(Applicant)

(Advisor)

Name of applicant: _____

7. Description of the project. Describe the proposed research in details, including the main problems addressed and the expected contribution of the proposed study. Detail the methodologies and analytical techniques to be used in the study. If the research includes fieldwork, a map/plan indicating the excavation/survey area and its location within the site/region.

The text and bibliography should not exceed 5 pages in length. If needed, 3 additional pages of graphics and tables can be appended.